Dionysus's Nectar: A Wine Tasting Journey

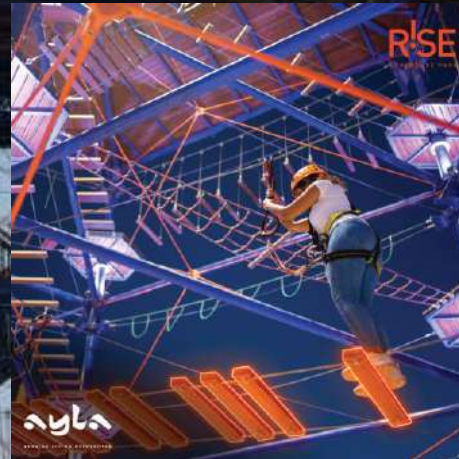

Jordan has been making wine since biblical times. In the Gospels, Jesus turned water into wine at a wedding celebration in Galilee. Dionysus, the Greek God of wine, was found in a 2000 year old magical cave painting in Petra. Wines produced in Jordan were also exported to ancient Egypt and later to Rome and Great Britain. We will go on a wine tasting journey into Jr Winery's winery in Amman to explore the this forgotten ancient wine industry.

Summit Surge: The Ultimate Showdown

This activity is to test the limits of your corporate team's strength, strategy, and spirit. This adventure is not for the faint-hearted; it combines an obstacle course, rope climbing, and a series of physical and mental challenges that demand cooperation, communication, and courage. As participants navigate through obstacles, ascend ropes to dizzying heights, and strategize to overcome unexpected hurdles, they'll discover the power of teamwork and leadership in a high-stakes environment. Each activity is crafted to foster problem-solving skills, build trust among team members, and enhance adaptability in the face of challenges.

Secrets of Petra: The Lost Treasure of Nabatean

This team-building adventure plunges you into the heart of ancient history, where the mysteries of the Nabatean kingdom lie waiting to be unearthed.

As you navigate the winding siqs and towering cliffs, each step takes you deeper into a story woven from the fabric of time itself. Legend has it that an Ancient Pharaoh's treasure is hidden deep in this Red Rose City.

Your mission: to decode ancient riddles, overcome challenges inspired by Nabatean ingenuity, and piece together the map that leads to the greatest treasure ever known to the Silk Road – the Lost Treasure of Nabatean.

Rails of Rebellion: The 1916 Ottoman Express Train Heist

In the train ride adventure, be prepared to embark on a journey back in time to 1916 when the Great Arab Revolt took place. You will board an authentic Hijaz Railway steam train, along with Ottoman soldiers going on a mission to provide supplies for a nearby garrison. But the mission takes a sharp turn when the train, along with its passengers, are ambushed by Arab revolutionists. Now you and your team must do everything you can to fight your way out of the situation together.

Nomad's Fury: The Ultimate Wadi Rum Paintball Quest

Designed to foster teamwork, communication, and leadership skills, this exhilarating paintball adventure challenges corporate teams to unite and strategize in the vast, open wilderness. Participants will navigate the majestic red sands, towering cliffs, and hidden canyons, drawing on the legendary tactics of nomadic tribes and the natural terrain to outmaneuver opponents. Each mission is crafted to enhance team cohesion, problem-solving abilities, and adaptability, making for a memorable and impactful bonding experience.

Market Mayhem

This a dynamic team-building activity designed to strengthen teamwork, communication, and problem-solving skills in a fun and unconventional setting. In this game, teams race against each other to purchase all the items on a shopping list written entirely in Arabic. This twist adds a layer of complexity, requiring team members to work closely together to decode the list, strategize their shopping plan, and efficiently divide tasks among themselves. By engaging in this immersive shopping challenge, teams will cultivate essential workplace skills such as leadership, delegation, and trust in one another's capabilities. The game is designed to highlight the importance of collaborative effort, critical thinking under pressure, and effective time management.

Jack Ward's Legacy: And the Stolen Chest of King James I

Following the legendary pirate Jack Ward, who, after being denied a pardon by King James I, fueled by anger and betrayal, he stole treasures directly from the King. Captain Ward then fled to the Red Sea, where he allied himself with the Ottoman Empire, converted to Islam, and adopted the name Yusif Reis. The only key to locating these stolen riches lies within the pages of his diary, filled with cryptic clues and maps. Teams must dive deep into the aquatic wonders of the Red Sea, working together to decipher Ward's diary, navigate through historical puzzles, learn to communicate underwater, and uncover the stolen chest.

For those who can't swim, or simply don't wish to get wet, don't worry, we got you covered! You can choose to ride on a glass boat and watch from above!

Each team must choose their best member to dive in the waters with a diving coach. The rest of team will be snorkelling above, cheering on your team member.
